London, Auguſt 25.

Yeſterday arrived the Mail from Flanders of Tueſday laſt.

From the Hague Courant, dated Auguſt 30.

Ratisbon, Auguſt 21.

THE Dyet of the Empire have paſſed an unanimous Reſolution, to remove from hence, on Account of the contagious Diſtempers raging here, to Ausbourg.

Francfort, Aug. 24. Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg having defended himſelf in Landau two Months with great Courage and Conduct, has at length been obliged to ſurrender that Place to the Enemy, and the Garriſon marched out the 22d for Haguenau, in order to be carried Priſoners of War from thence to Champagne: The principal Officers have kept their Equipages, with Liberty to go whither they will on their Parole. Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg came Yeſterday to Philipsbourg. 'Tis ſaid the Garriſon of Landau would have held out longer, but for want of Gunpowder; and that for ſome Days before they yielded they were obliged to take Powder out of their Mines.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Aug. 29.

Bruſſels, Aug. 29. The 27th Inſtant General Cadogan arrived here from Germany.

London, Auguſt 25.

A Mail arrived from France has brought the Paris Letter of Auguſt 28. N. S. which follows.

Paris, Aug. 28. We have received Letters from the Camp before Landau, dated the 19th and 20th Inſtant, containing the following Particulars. The Night between the 18th and 19th our Men attacked the two Counterguards, which after a very vigorous Action were carried, and above 80 Priſoners were taken. It was thought ſufficient to make a Lodgement on the Point of the Left Counterguard, but the Lodgement was extended along the Neck, and to the Right Counterguard, in order to raiſe two Batteries to finiſh the Breaches in the Redoubt, it being determined to enter the Place there. The 19th in the Morning the Beſieged ſeeing themſelves reduced to this Extremity, beat a Parley, and ſent out Hoſtages to the Marſhal de Villars, who told them the Garriſon ſhould be Priſoners of War. Thoſe Hoſtages returning into the Place, came out again two Hours after, and asked the ſame Capitulation as that which was granted to Tournay; but the Marſhal de Villars repeated to them that they ſhould all be Priſoners of War. Whereupon the Hoſtages went back again, and the Firing was renewed on both Sides; the Beſieged making even a greater Fire than at any time before. But the 20th in the Morning they hung out a White Flag, and ſent out Hoſtages once more to the Marſhal de Villars, to acquaint him that they were willing to yield themſelves Priſoners of War; whereupon the Marſhal gave their Officers their Equipages. 'Twas a Son of M. de Valory who the 23d at Night brought to Marly the News of the taking of the Counterguards, and the 24th at 2 in the Morning a Nephew of the Marſhal de Bezons brought an Account of the Reduction of the Place. They write from Madrid the 14th, that of the 3 Barks which were taken by our Gallies in the Heighth of Barcelona, 2 were laden with Salt, and the 3d had on board 120 Gunners whom the Viceroy of Majorca had ſent to Barcelona, and they are put to ſerve at the Oar in the Gallies: In the mean while the People of that Iſland were deſirous to ſubmit, and 2 Gallies with 400 Men are ſent to receive their Obedience. A great Number of Families were come out of Barcelona to ſubmit likewiſe; but the Populace perſiſted in their Reſolution to defend themſelves; and the Duke de Popoli having ſummoned the Governour to ſurrender, he refuſed to do it; which has obliged the King, for chaſtiſing thoſe Rebels, to order 20 Battallions and 24 Squadrons of the Troops of Eſtremadura to march to reinforce thoſe which block up Barcelona, with all Proviſions neceſſary for their Subſiſtance, and heavy Artillery drawn from Valencia

Tortoſa

Tortosa and Tarragona, to besiege that Place in form if it persist in its Rebellion. Likewise 4 Brigades of the Life-Guards were ordered to march into the Kingdoms of Valencia and Arragon. The King's Army continued encamp'd at Hospitaleto, having their Right at Montjouy, and their Left at the Sea on the other Side of Barcelona, where the French Troops were encamp'd. The Inhabitants of Manresa having received a Reinforcement of 400 Miquelets revolted, but the Duke de Popoli having sent thither 5000 Men, with Order to set the Place on fire, the Miquelets made off, and the Inhabitants sent to beg Pardon, notwithstanding which some of the principal of them were hang'd. Another Body of Miquelets having possessed themselves of a small Place in Arragon near the Mountains, plunder'd it; but the Inhabitants of the neighbouring Country running to Arms, cut off their Passage, and retook the Booty, after having fought and routed them. The Dutchess of Berry appointed a great Hunting last Thursday in the Bois de Bologne, and was accompanied by a great many Lords and Ladies of the Court, and other Persons of Distinction.

Dunkirk, Aug. 21. On the 19th came here the Regiments of Sabine, Chidleigh, and Siburgh: The two last sailed Yesterday Morning for Dover, and Siburgh's this Morning.

Deal, Aug. 23. Her Majesty's Ship South-Sea-Castle sailed Yesterday Afternoon for Harwich. Remaining the Glasgow, Rose, and Valeur. P. S. Just come in the Queen Packet-Boat, Capt. Culverden Commander, from Falmouth, being bound for the River.
